

Notices of Privacy Practices (HIPPA)

As required by the privacy regulations created as a result of the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA). This notice describes how health information about you (as a patient of this practice) may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to your individually identifiable health information. Please review this notice carefully.

A. Our commitment to your privacy: Our practice is dedicated to maintaining the privacy of your individually identifiable health information also called protected health information, or PHI. In conducting our business, we will create records regarding you and the treatment and services we provide to you. We are required by law to maintain the confidentiality of health information that identifies you. We also are required by law to provide you with the notice of our legal duties and the privacy practices that we maintain in our practice concerning your PHI. By federal and state law, we must follow the terms of the Notice of Privacy Practices that we have in effect at the time. We realize that these laws are complicated, but we must provide you with the following important information: How we may use and disclose your PHI, Your privacy rights in your PHI, Our obligations, concerning the use and disclosure of your PHI. The terms of this notice apply to all records containing your PHI that are created or retained by our practice. We reserve the right to revise or amend this Notice of Privacy Practices. Any revision or amendment to this notice will be effective for all of your records that our practice has created or maintained in the past, and for any of your records that we create or maintain in the future. Our practice will post a copy of the current Notice in our offices in a visible location at all times. And you may request a copy of our most current Notice at any time.

B. If you have any questions about this Notice, please contact Ralnah Brown.

C. We may use and disclose your PHI in the following ways: The following categories describe the different ways in which we may use and disclose your PHI

1. Treatment. Our practice may use your PHI to treat you. For example, we may ask you to have laboratory tests (such as blood and urine) tests and we may use the results to help us reach a diagnosis or to provide comprehensive treatment. We might use your PHI in order to write a prescription for you, or we might disclose your PHI to a pharmacy when we order a prescription for you. Many of the people who work for our practice including, but not limited to, our clinicians and assistants may use or disclose you PHI in order to treat you or to assist others in your treatment. Additionally, we may disclose your PHI to other Health care providers for purposes related to your treatment.

2. Payment. Our practice may use and disclose your PHI in order to bill and collect payment for the services and items you may receive from us. For example, we contact your health insurer to certify that you are eligible for benefits (and for what range of benefits), and we may provide your insurer with details regarding your treatment to determine if your insurer will cover, or pay for, your treatment. We may also use and disclose your PHI to obtain payment from third parties that may be responsible for such costs, such as family members. Also, we may use your PHI to bill you directly for services and items. We may disclose you PHI to other health care providers and entities in their billing and collection efforts.

3. Healthcare Operations. Our practice may use and disclose you PHI to operate our business. As examples of the way in which we may use and disclose your information for our operations, our practice may use your PHI to evaluate the quality of your care you received from us, or to conduct cost management and business planning activities for our practice. We may disclose you PHI to other health care providers and entities to assist in their health care operations.

4. Appointment Reminders. Our practice may use and disclose you PHI to contact you and remind you of your appointment.

5. Treatment Options. Our practice may use and disclose your PHI to inform you of potential treatment options and alternatives.

6. Health-related Benefits & Services. Our practice may use and disclose your PHI to inform you of health-related benefits or services that may be of interest to you.

7. Release of Information to Family/Friends. Our practice may use or disclose your PHI to family members or a friend that is involved in your care, or who assists in taking care of you. For example, a parent or guardian may ask that a babysitter take their child to the counselor/psychiatrist for a mental health appointment. In this example, the babysitter may have access to this child's medical information.

8. Disclosure Required by Law. Our practices will use and disclose your PHI when we are required to do so by federal, state or local law.

D. Use and disclosure of your PHI in certain circumstances.

1. Public health risks. Our practice may disclose your PHI to public health authorities that are authorized by law to collect information for the purposes of:

We also may disclose your PHI to federal officials in order to protect the president other officials or foreign heads of state, or to conduct investigations.

11. Inmates. Our practice may disclose you PHI to correctional institutions or law enforcement officials if you are an inmate or under the custody of a law enforcement official. Disclosure for these purposes would be necessary: (a) for the institution to provide health care services to you, (b) for the safety and security of the institution, and/or to protect your health and safety or the health and safety of other individuals.

12. Workers compensation. Our practice may release you PHI for workers' compensation and similar programs.

E. Your rights regarding PHI: You have the following rights regarding the PHI that we maintain about you:

1. Confidential communications. You have the right to request that our practice communicate with you about your health and related issues in a particular manner or at a certain location. For instance, you may ask that we contact you at home, rather than work. In order to request a type of confidential communication you must make a written request to Ralnah Brown specifying the requested method of contact, or the location where you wish to be contacted. Our practice will accommodate reasonable requests. You do not need to give a reason for your request

2. Requesting restrictions. You have the right to request a restriction in our use of disclosure of your PHI for treatment, payment or health care operations. Additionally, you have the right to request that we restrict our disclosure of your PHI to only certain individuals involved in your care or the payment for your care, such as family members and friends. We are not required to agree to your request; however, if we do agree, we are bound by our agreement except when otherwise required by law, in emergencies or when the information is necessary to treat you. In order to request a restriction in our use or disclosure of your PHI, you must make a request in writing to Ralnah Brown 16701 Melford Blvd. Suite 400 Bowie, MD 20715. Your request must describe in a clear and concise fashion:

- The information you wish restricted,
- Whether you are requesting to limit our practice's use, disclosure or both,
- To whom you want the limits to apply.

3. Inspections & Copies. You have the right to inspect and obtain a copy of your PHI that may be used to make decisions about you, including patient medical records and billing records, but not including psychotherapy notes. You must submit your request in writing to Ralnah Brown 16701 Melford Blvd. Suite 400 Bowie, MD 20715 in order to inspect and/or obtain a copy of your PHI. Our practice may charge a fee for the costs of copying, mailing, labor, and supplies associated with your request. Our practice may deny your request to inspect and/or in certain limited circumstances; however, you may request a review of our denial. Another licensed health care professional chosen by us will conduct reviews. 4. Amendment. You may ask us to amend your health information if you believe it is incorrect or incomplete, and you may request an amendment for as long as the information is kept by or for our practice. To request an amendment, your request must be in writing and submitted to Ralnah Brown 16701 Melford Blvd. Suite 400 Bowie, MD 20715.
